GERMANS FAIL IN THEIR PURPOSE

Encircling Movement Toward English Channel Ends in Miscarriage

JUNCTION EFFECTED.

Westward Advance of Kaiser's Army Meets Sudden Check Under Assault and Suffers Loss.

Paris, Oct. 15.—Sweeping advances by the allies mark the progress of the great battle that is raging along a 500-mile front in France and Belgium.

Not only has the great encircling movement of the Germans toward the coast points been checked, according to an optimistic official communique issued this afternoon at Bordeaux at 3 o'clock, but at every point along the line advances for the allies are reported.

German troops have evacuated the left bank of the river Lys, in the vicinity of Baule, east of Ypres, reported captured by the allies yesterday.

Advances in the region of Lens, Arras, and Albert are also reported and in the center at Craonne, Berry-au-Bac, Rheims and Prunay.

Further on the right wing advances are reported on the line between Verdun and Metz. The German offensive move north of St. Die is said to have been arrested.

London, Oct. 15.—The German encircling movement toward the channel has failed of its purpose.

The Belgian and British forces formerly concentrated near Ostend, have successfully effected a junction with a strongly reenforced column of French troops and have inflicted a severe check on the Germans.

The line of the westward advance of the Kaiser's forces across the Franco-Belgian frontier, it is reported, has been sent back under an assault in which the Germans suffered heavily.

From semi-official reports here, the battle line across the Franco-Belgian frontier extends nearly due north and south. General Von Beseler's right wing rests on the North Sea, near Bleckenberghe, a small city ten miles northeast of Ostend. His left reaches to the river Lys, in the neighborhood of Coutrai—sixteen miles east of Ypres, now held by the allies.

It is apparent here that the battle in this section is an endeavor by the allies to turn the flank of Von Beseler's force and insert a wedge between the colmns of this general and that of General Von Boehn.

The British forces are bearing the brunt of this particular fighting. The official press bureau has not made public anything which would indicate the number of British troops in this section, or whether they have recently been added to by re-enforcements sent from England.

Ultimate occupation by the enemy of Ostend is accepted and discounted. A blockading fleet of medium strength—such as could easily be spared from the flotilla of vessels now concentrated off Helgoland—would render Ostend useless as a base for aerial operations by the enemy.

Paris, Oct. 15.—With a Franco Belgian British column pushing forward, forcing an acute angle of depression in the line of the German advance and with the French maintaining a successful offensive along the center of what now must be considered the 500-mile front, Paris was optimistic again today.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Mrs. Georgia L. M. Pryor, 34 years old, wife of Lieut Comdr. James C. Pryor, surgeon U. S. N., died yesterday at the home of her father, Comdr. George Mackay, U. S. N., retired, in Washington, from the effects of a dose of strychnine taken by mistake.

George Sample chief of police of Newport, Tenn., was killed yesterday by a young son of Mel Rutherford after the chief had killed the father following the latter's attempt to prevent his son's arrest. The boy was under arrest when his father came up and demanded his release. Sample refused and in the fight that followed the elder Rutherford was killed. The son then grabbed Sample's revolver and shot him dead.

M. de Cartier, Belgian Minister in Peking, who is in London engaged in refugee work, said yesterday that Belgium was not nearly through fighting, despite the fall of Antwerp and other untoward happenings. We still have an army of 80,000 men, which is practically intact, headed by the king, with the queen always near by, and with no other intention than that of staying with the king throughout, he said.

More than $100,000 was lost and won by New York sporting men through the failure of the Giants to win the National League pennant and the subsequent failure of the Athletics to win the world's series. The heaviest loser was Arnold Rothstein, who is said to have dropped $75,000 through the failures of the Giants and Mackmen.

The Supreme Court of Georgia yesterday denied Leo M. Frank a new trial on the extraordinary motion submitted by his counsel several months ago. Frank was convicted of the murder of sixteen-year-old Mary Phagan, and now has only one recourse left, the setting aside of the verdict, which is now before the Supreme Court in the form of a demurrer.

Charles C. Hays, 18 years old, died in a hospital at Jersey City yesterday of injuries received in a football game last Monday. Young Hays was a player on the Fordham University preparatory school team. In a game with a team from St. Peter's College he tackled the man with the ball, and many of the others fell on top of him. A kick in the stomach caused injuries which an operation failed to alleviate.

Swinging a dangerous looking suit case, which he claimed was crammed with dynamite, a man believed to be Alonzo B. Schuyler, of Adams, N. Y., walked into an office near Thirty-eighth street and Broadway, New York, yesterday saying he was looking for Charles F. Murphy, and that he had enough dynamite to blow Mr. Murphy, his tiger and the whole of Tammany Hall into the lower bay. He was strategically led to the Tenderloin station, where the police took possession of his suit case and and he was sent to Bellevue to be examined as to his sanity. When the police opened the suit case it contained only a few books.

Some well known Americans in London are among those who have secured insurance against bombs There was such a rush yesterday for bomb insurance that the rates at Lloyds took a decided upward leap, the highest being for properties near government buildings and the water front. Around such places the rate rose from five shillings to seven shillings six pence and even to ten shillings which is a decided advance as the rate has been two shillings six pence per cent.

The Senate Finance Committee at a meeting yesterday decided to amend the pending war revenue bill by striking out the proposed tax on proprietary medicines. They also agreed to adopt Senator Oliver's proposed amendment relating to the stamp tax, in so far as it affects packages of newspapers. It was decided to assess a tax of 8 cents a gallon on both sweet and dry wines, and a tax of 55 cents a gallon on brandy used in fortifying the wines. The tax on manufactured tobacco was still pending when the committee adjourned last night.

FIERCE STRUGGLE IN EAST PRUSSIA

Russians Number 1,500,000 and Austrians and Germans 1,000,000.

BULK IS NOW ENGAGED

Overwhelming Defeat of Austrians by Servians and Montenegrins—Battle Lasts Two Days.

Petrograd, Oct. 15—Two and a half million men are now engaged in a terrific struggle on the lines of the Austro-German-Russian general battle.

The Russian general staff today estimates the strength of the enemy to consist of about one million men including twelve German army corps, of the first and second line, and ten Austrian corps. Against this vast army Russia has concentrated a still more impressive force—approximately twenty six army corps—a total of a million and a half of fighting men.

The bulk of the Russian army is now fully engaged along this vast battle front in Poland. It opposes the combined Austro-German forces to the extreme south, and the German army on the center and north.

The magnitude of these operations renders insignificant the campaign in Galicia. The Poland campaign is Russia's supreme effort. Defeat here for the Germans, a break in their line through which the Czar could pour his massed re-enforcements, would mean the first step in the march to Berlin.

The disposition of these opposing forces has been compared today to the strategical position assumed by the allies and the Germans along the river Aisne, at the very start of the battle of that name.

London, Oct., 15—All official statement, issued today by the Montenegrin consul general announces the overwhelming defeat of an army of 15,000 Austrians near Sarajevo by the combined Montenegrin and Servian armies.

The battle raged for two days with enormous losses on both sides. The statement admits severe losses among the Servians and Montenegrins, but declares that the Austrians' mortality percentage was staggering.

An Austrian battery and hundreds of prisoners were taken.

Losing his balance while looking over a ledge, Gustav Bauman, proprietor of the Hotel Biltmore in New York, and one of the best known hotel men in the country, was killed yesterday when he fell twenty-two stories from the roof of the hotel to the Italian gardens.

LONE BANDIT ROBS BANK.

Forces Cashier to Hand Over $2,000 and Escapes.

Ardmore, Okla. Oct. 15—A masked bandit yesterday forced the cashier of the bank at Pontotoc, Okla., to hand over $2,000 in cash, and escaped after exchanging shots with citizens. In his flight the robber dropped two bags containing $500. A posse is in pursuit.

BELGIUM CALLS ALL TO COLORS

The Hague Oct. 15—The Belgian government's last act before transferring the capital of the nation to Havre, France, was issuance of an order directing all males between eighteen and forty-five to join the army within two days.

The penalty for disobedience to this command is treatment as traitors to Belgium.

BLOWS OUT HER BRAINS.

Negress Wrote She Wrecked Life of Husband Believed White.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Placing a revolver against her temple, Mrs. Elizabeth Montague, a well-educated negress, blew out her brains Tuesday night in the yard in the rear of her home, No. 4310 Woodland avenue. Her husband, H. A. Montague, heard the shot. He rushed into the yard but his wife was dead when he reached her side. After notifying the police of the suicide, Montague disappeared.

Montague is believed by the police to be a white man. According to a note left by the woman she was despondent because she had wrecked his life. Her body will be sent to her former home in Richmond, Va., for burial.

Newport News, Oct. 15.—Disregarding the Price bill and the opinion of City Attorney Massie, members of the city council, at a joint session Tuesday night, elected Attorney T. G. Christian police justice.

All city officers were elected last night. Dr. T. J. Pretlow was re-elected health officer over Dr. Robert Davis by a majority of one vote.

CHILD KILLED BY AUTO.

Philadelphia, Oct. 15.—Struck by a skidding automobile at Nineteenth and Cayna streets yesterday, six year-old Nellie Reilly, of No. 193 Denie street, received injuries that caused her death last night in St. Luke's Homeopathic Hospital.

The asphalt pavement on Cayna street had been sprinkled shortly before the accident. The child was crossing the street with a companion when the driver saw her directly in his path. He applied the brakes so suddenly that the wheels locked and skidded on the slippery surface.

The rear of the machine struck the child and knocked her down. Mr. Whitman, the driver, heeding his machine after it had smashed into a post on the pavement, picked up the little girl and ran with her to the office of Dr. Frederick Sutcliffe, who ordered her removed to the hospital.

Whitman gave himself up to the police who released him; but after the child's death the police took him into custody.

DREADNOUGHT IS DESTROYED

Austrian Ship Just Completed Mysteriously Gutted by Fire.

INCENDIARY ORIGIN.

Flames Broke Out on Scaffolding in Several Places—Was to Have Been Launched Today.

Trieste (via Havre) Oct. 15— A new Austrian dreadnought just completed, whose launching was scheduled for this afternoon at the government shipbuilding yards at Montalone Bei Trieste, mysteriously caught fire early today and was gutted by the flames.

Six new torpedo boats were also found aflame and several were seriously damaged before the fire was extinguished.

Fourteen hundred employes were just starting the final day's work on the big dreadnought when the fire was discovered in several places, on the scaffolding and in the interior of the hull. The rapidity with which the flames spread gave rise to the report here that the incendiaries had covered the vessel's timbers with oil.

The entire shipyard is under military patrol today. The government is alarmed at the coup, undoubtedly executed by spies.

NEW EXPRESS RATES.

Sweeping Reductions Made in Accordance with Interstate Commerce Board's Ruling.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Drastic and sweeping reductions in express rates for the entire United States, recently ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission, became effective today. Also effective at once the express companies are ordered to revise business methods. The latter order, the commission declares, is designed to "safeguard the public." It simplifies the claim of shipper when disputes arise and disposes of red tape methods.

Rate reductions range all the way from 10 to 60 per cent, foodstuffs drawing the principal reductions.

The new rates are to be "experimental," for two years, the commission announced. Unless it is shown that the express companies suffer too great a loss of revenue the rates will eventually become permanent. The commission ruled that the express companies can effectively compete with the Government parcel post, and with sufficient efforts and reasonable rates can offset any losses.

Monticello Assessed at $25,403.

Richmond, Oct. 15.—State Auditor Lee Moore has prepared a report showing that "Monticello," former home of Thomas Jefferson, and now owned by Jefferson M. Levy, of New York, is returned for assessment valued at $25,403, of which $12,000 is for the mansion and curtelege and $13,403 for the demense of 608 and one-fourth acres.

HIGHWAYMEN STRIP VICTIM.

Even Took Eyeglasses and Left Him Shivering in Bushes.

Pottsville, Pa. Oct. 15—While on his way from his home in St. Clair to Mt. Hope, yesterday afternoon, Arden Seeley aged 20, was accosted by two highwaymen.

Seeley was pulled into the bushes alongside the road and there stripped of every piece of clothing which he wore. The men even took the eyeglasses from his nose. After warning him not to make an outcry, the two men decamped through the bushes.

Young Seeley finally came out from the bushes and shivering with cold went to the barn of an uncle, about 150 feet from the scene of the holdup. Here he fortunately procured a rubber coat. Wrapping this around him he called for his uncle and collapsed.

KAISER MOVES HIS TENT

March of Germans is Partly Toward Ostend, and Toward Frontier

Berlin, Oct. 15 (By wireless via [illegible]) L. [illegible] Bureau of the Kaiser's headquarters further into France [illegible] an explanation that the German Belgian campaign includes a march "partly toward Ostend and partly southwest toward the French frontier," was contained in an official statement made public today as follows:

"Heavy fighting is in progress east of Soissons and in the Argonnes. French official reports detailing successes in the Woevre region are untrue. Etain is now in German hands and French attacks against our position near St. Mihiel have been repulsed.

"The Russians have been defeated near Schirwindt with a loss of 1,500 prisoners and twenty cannon. The German forces have repulsed the Russians south through souther Poland back to Warsaw and to the Vistula.

"German troops in Belgium are marching partly toward Ostend, partly toward the French frontier. The Kaiser on petition of Cardinal Hartmann, of Cologne, has ordered that French Catholic priests now among the prisoners taken by German troops who have the rank of common soldiers in France, shall be treated as officers.

"The Kaiser's headquarters have been moved farther into France.

"The Russian cruiser Pallada was sunk off the entrance to the Gulf of Finland."

Washington, Oct. 15—The German version of two war incidents confirms the encircling movement in Belgium and lends color to the belief that a submarine base has been established in the Baltic Sea near the Russian frontier. The Russian official statement concealed the location of the spot where the Palada was sunk either the existence of a submarine base near Memel, or else shows an extraordinary cruising ability for the German submarines. Their range of active operations has heretofore been placed at only about 100 miles.

It is nearly this distance from Memel to the entrance to the Gulf of Finland, and vastly farther, of course from the Gulf of Finland to Wilhelmshaven, where it is known a German submarine fleet is concentrated.

The place where the assault occurred is near the estate of Bruce Cotten, near Cylburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp was married July 12. The assault, which is one of the boldest ever committed in Baltimore county, occurred at a time when persons were constatnly passing along the roadway and almost within hearing of groups of workmen.

CARRANZA STEPS DOWN AND OUT

Mexican Executive's Resignation Accepted by Conference.

VILLA SENDS REPORT.

Latter's Candidate Will Become President and He Will Endeavor to Bring Peace to Mexico.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Official advices received today at the State Department are to the effect that General Villa's representatives won a notable success in forcing the convention at Aguas Calientes to postpone the selection of a successor to Provisional President Carranzaz until the Zapata faction is represented.

The convention, under a threat of the Villa representatives, to withdraw, has agreed to recess until October 20, awaiting Zapata's reply.

This decision, a compromise, was reached after a heated debate in the convetion yesterday, during which the Carranza representatives had declared that a withdrawal of the Villa representatives would place the northern commander in open rebellion.

Washington, Oct. 15—General Venustiano Carranza resigned yesterday afternoon as Provisional President of Mexico. The resignation was presented to the delegates at the Aguas Calientes conference and promptly accepted. The foregoing was the substance of a dispatch received at the Villa headquarters here this evening.

The Villa agency gave out the following:

"The resignation of General Carranza as Provisional President of Mexico was presented to the Aguas Calientes convention at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Aguas Calientes time, and promptly accepted. Immediately Antonio Villereal, president of the convention, was nominated for the Provisional Presidency, and at the hour of filing this message, 3:30 p. m., Aguas Calientes time, no serious opposition had developed against him.

"At the morning session the convention abandoned the plan to a commission form of government for Mexico until such time as an election to fill the unexpired Diaz term could be held. When this decision was reached it became obvious that one of the two Villa candidates—Villareal and Calderon—would be nominated as soon as the resignation of Carranza was placed before the convention.

"The nomination of Villareal and his certain election to the Provisional Presidency is a complete victory for Villa and his supporters. Villereal is a man of exceptional ability, and his election to the Presidency will have the effect of setting aside the personal differences between leaders in Mexican affairs which have kept the Republic in a foment since the overthrow of Diaz, and is believed to mark the beginning of an era of peace and prosperity in the harassed Southern Republic."

The State Department was without advices concerning the action of the convention, as reported by the Villa agency. At the Mexican agency where the Carranza followers hold forth, it was said the dispatch probably gave an accurate account of what happened, as it was anticipated there from advices received last night that Carranza today would lay his resignation before the convention.

Villereal and Calderon, both Carranza followers and advisers, have had the support of Villa, ever since his break with Carranza. Villereal formerly was Carranza's financial adviser.

The Aguas Calientes convention is the adjourned convention which met in Mexico City on October 1, which rejected Carranza's resignation.

In the absence of details, it is not known here whether the resignation of Carranza will bring a halt to the fighting at Agua Prieta and Naco, Mexico, which are towns bordering on the Arizona frontier.

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

One of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in historic Christ Church was performed last evening by Rev. William J. Morton, when he joined in marriage Miss Frances Virginia Dannenhower and State Senator John Paul, of Harrisonburg, Va. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Colonel William A. Smoot. Her gown was beautifully fashioned from brocaded crepe and rose point lace. The veil, draping the entire length of the court train, was caught in a most becoming way with rose-point and narrow wreath of orange blossoms over the soft hair and girlish brow. The bouquet carried by the bride was a shower of lilies of the valley and orchids.

The little fair-haired flower girls were her nieces, Caroline and Elizabeth Rust. They wore dainty lingerie frocks and carried baskets of pink roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary Glenn Uhler, was handsome in a gown of pink India silk, the bodice shadowed through chiffon and cream lace. She carried pink roses and lillies.

The groom's best man, was his brother, Charles Paul, of North Carolina, and the ushers were Dr. J. Thornton Ashton, and David N. Rust, of this city, Samuel Funkhouser, of New York, and Marshall Milton, of Roanoke, Va.

The church was profusively decorated throughout with palms and snowy cosmos which made an ideal bridal decoration.

The reception to the bride, which followed the ceremony, was held at "Colross," the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Smoot. Here the house presented the same bridal picture being decorated with pale tinted cosmos and ferns.

After the honeymoon trip, Senator and Mrs. Paul will be at home in Harrisonburg.

OFFICERS DESTROY BIG STILL

Lynchburg, Va. Oct. 15—At an early hour Sunday morning Deputy Collectors O. T. Wood and D. L. Forlines, of Lynchburg, raided a still about four miles west Piney river, Nelson county, and destroyed the plant, which was one of the most complete that revenue officers have captured in this section for some time. The paraphernalia consisted of a 125 gallon still, cap and worm, four fermenters and twenty three barrels of hard cider ready for distillation. The plant was well hidden in the bushes of Nettle mountain and so concealed that the officers had considerable difficulty locating it. Posseman D. G. Lipscomb assisted the officers in the raid.

COUPLE HELD FOR MURDER.

Snake Charmer And Companion Arrested in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Mrs. Ruth McCullough, a 20 year old "snake charmer," and her compaion, Clarence McCormick, 18 years old son of a Lancaster (Mo.) farmer, were arrested here yesterday, charged with the recent murder of I. W. Mellott, a wealthy farmer, of Hedrick.

Mellott was shot while in his automobile and his head crushed. The purpose of the murder, which took place October 6, was robbery. The robbery only netted $23.

Mellott was believed to carry large sums with him and McCormick and the girl are alleged to have lured him out of the town of Hedrick on the pretext that he would meet a girl in whom he is said to have been interested.

In a written statement McCormick exonerated Mrs. McCullough. He said he shot Mellott to get money to marry the woman, who had promised to obtain a divorce. McCormick and Mrs. McCullough were taken to Ottumwa, Iowa.

DOES CHRISTIANITY PAY?

Question Answered in Affirmative by Many in Trinity M. E. Church Last Night.

The revival now in progress at Trinity M. E. Church, conducted by Evangelist Lee Starke, continues to draw large crowds. The church is full at each service, and much interest is being manifested.

Last night the evangelist made a short talk, and then asked the people to "Witness for Christ" in answer to the following questions:

"Does It Pay To Be a Christian?" Over one hundred replied that it did.

Last night's services proved to be one of the most interesting and helpful of the entire series.

Mr. Starke has done much to lay the foundation for stronger and more aggressive activity on the part of the churches in Alexandria.

There will be services every night including Saturday night, at Trinity M. E. Church, and a special mass meeting for men at the Surprise Theatre on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to which all men are cordially invited. Services of song on the street each evening, at 7:15, regular service at 7:30.

AN ALLEGED MURDERER

Negro Arrested in Richmond for Assault Said to Have Killed Woman in Alexandria.

Joseph Meekins, a negro, was arrested in Richmond yesterday on the charge of assaulting and beating a woman name Lizzie Brown. He was brought before Justice Crutchfield, who fined the accused $10.

It was subsequently alleged that Meekins was wanted in Alexandria to answer the charge of murdering a woman. Justice Crutchfield ordered him to be held and the Alexandria authorities notified.

Inquiries were made at the station house in this city today concerning the alleged criminal, but the officers have no recollection of a woman having been murdered here nor any fugitive from justice name Joseph Meekins. They know but one man bearing the name and he is not wanted by the authorities.

It is possible that Meekins is wanted in the county, although the Gazette has been unable to obtain any information of the murder of a woman in that jurisdiction recently and the escape of the perpetrator.

A MILLION MEN OR MORE.

A General Response Should Follow if President Needed Soldiers.

Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan gave utterance to a statement in his New York address that gives proof of his adroitness in conveying a warning in a manner that is effective while thoroughly diplomatic. Discussing the fact that the President had saved this country from war with Mexico and commenting upon the value of this service in view of the ravage of war abroad, Mr. Bryan employed a bit of rhetoric that will doubtless cause to ponder any power that might be disposed either now or in the future to embroil the United States.

His words were: "The President knows that if he needed a million volunteers he could issue a call at sunrise and that the sun would go down on a million men in line." While the expression was made in connection with what could have been done in case of war to the south, it holds good with regard to war in any other quarter—with the exception that in case of war elsewhere a million men would not measure the response from sunrise to sunset.

The United States is a purely pacific country and it owes a debt of gratitude to the man in the White House for his prevention of its embroilment. But if the need were to arise it would be a nation in arms—for it is a nation of patriots, and every man in the country includes in his ideas of patriotism service to the limit of sacrifice—Baltimore American.

JONES BILL PASSES

House Declares Itself In Favor Of Philippine Independence.

Washington, Oct., 15—The Philippine bill introduced by Representative Jones, which declares the purpose of the United States to recognize the indenpendency of the islands "as soon as a stable government can be established there" passed the House late yesterday by a vote of 211 to 59. It will not be considered in the Senate at this session of Congress.

All efforts to amend the principles of the bill failed. Republican opponents charged that it was unwise and misleading to the Filipino people.

An effort of the minority to engraft upon it provisions for woman suffrage and prohibition failed. Attempts to secure the neutralization of the islands by international agreement pending independence, and proposals to alter the salary of the Governor-General, fixed in the bill at $18,000 a year, were fruitless.

ALEX. COUNTY LIGHTING CO

TO PROBE TAXES

Judges Harrison and Southall Direct Grand Juries to Get Busy.

Richmond, Oct., 15—Only two judges in the State have so far complied with the law in the matter of calling special grand juries to look over the returns of the commissioners of the revenue to examine into the tax lists, and to determine if there have been omissions of intangible property on the part of any persons.

These judges are Judge Thomas W. Harrison, of Winchester, and Judge Robert W. Southall, of Amelia. They have ordered that the grand jury shall make an examination—not a perfunctory inquiry, but that the people shall be called and asked regarding their returns.

The law is mandatory. The judges have no option in the matter. The fact that there is tax dodging of consequence is the fault of the officers in many instances because of their failure to enforce the laws as they are on the statutes.

Not only does the State of Virginia benefit by the rigid enforcement of the laws, but the counties and cities benefit to an even greater extent than the State.

SENT ON FOR TRIAL.

Remarkable Story of Botetourt Girl Once Had Her Father Convicted.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 15.—Bertha Lemon, the pretty 20-year-old daughter of C. R. Lemon, of Oriskany, Botetourt county, was on Tuesday sent on to the Roanoke county grand jury charged with having set fire to and burned the dwelling owned by E. M. Funkhouser, She was unable to give bail.

The evidence against the girl, while circumstantial, is regarded as exceedingly strong by the Commonwealth and a chain of other evidence has been massed against her in connection with six other fires, which she is alleged to have caused. The evidence against the girl is of such a nature that it would indicate that she has a mania for setting fire to property.

In gathering the evidence leading to her arrest the following information was secured.

Two years ago Bertha was living with her grandmother, Mrs. Hester Lemon, at Oriskany. While there on two different occasions the bed clothing in the house was discovered on fire and when pressed the young woman admitted that she had done it, but gave no reason.

This past summer a year ago the girl committed some misdeameanor and her father reprimanded her. He then whipped her. The girl then had him arrested for cruel treatment. He was discharged.

A short while afterwards she is alleged to have caused her father's arrest on a charge of committing a criminal assault upon his ten-year-old daughter. He was tried at the Fincastle Circuit Court and convicted and given five years in the penitentiary. Before he was sentenced some physicians in the community took an interest in the case and an examination of the little girl disclosed the fact that the father had not been guilty of any criminal act and the judge dismissed the charge against Mr. Lemon.

The girl, who has been employed in several homes in the capacity of a domestic, came to Roanoke within the last year and secured employment in the home of Mrs. Leroy. Early in August a fire was discovered in the kitchen of Mrs. Lucas, who occupied half of the house with Mrs. Dooley. The second fire occurred August 15, between 8 and 9 o'clock, and was discovered in a closet adjoining the Lucas kitchen. On the same day a fire was discovered in a bed room adjoining the Lucas kitchen.

SUICIDE OF A STRANGER.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 15.—Information has been received here of a horrible suicide Friday afternoon at Sycamore, on the Southern Railway, of a well dressed young white man who was, apparently about 30 years of age. A freight train had stopped at the station and the stranger entered into conversation with some of the trainmen. As the train started to leave Sycamore the trainmen were horrified to see the stranger plunge under the wheels of the locomotive and his head was mashed under one of the wheels of the big engine before it could be stopped.

The dead man was picked up and taken to Gretna, where the remains were held for identification. At last reports from there no light had been thrown upon the identity of the suicide.

Dispatches from Petrograd say that careful estimates in military circles there put the number of Germans killed and wounded and otherwise unfitted for service since the outbreak of hostilities at 700,000.

ROUTED BY AIRMEN

German Cavalry Shelled by Frenc With Terrible Effect.

Paris Oct., 15—The most dashin exploit of the French airmen sinc the beginning of the war was th complete rout of a division of Ger man cavalry, which they shelled fro the air. Official communication say the aviators pursued the cavalrymen all day, ceaselessly pouring bomb upon them and inflicting heavy los ses.

Additional details which have com from the north show that the Ger mans had crossed the frontier an were advancing toward the Haze brouck region early in the mornin when they were met by a stronge French force. The preliminary skir mishes went in favor of the Frenc and the Germans seeing the ron barred began an orderly retreat.

The French general, while harry ing their rear with his own cavalr ordered the air squadron to giv chase and convert the retreat into a rout with their bombs.

The effect on the enemy was d vastating. The Frenchmen showerl deadly missles upon the dense mas of cavalry, and as ugly gaps apper ed where dragoons and cuirrassier became strewn across the road in a horrible welter of blood, panic spread among the Germans. They galloped furiously toward the frontier vainly attempting to escape the bombs, and their compact division was soon dispersed into squadrons, dashing off across the country in different directions in order to baffle their aerial foe.

This had the effect of reducing their losses, although the aviators maintained the pursuit until nightfall, annihilating several squadrons. Numerous horses were killed, while their riders escaped miraculously. Many others were strewn about the countryside in ghastly heaps, having been kicked to death by their horses as they struggled on the roadside in agony. The unexpected air attack absolutely demoralized the Germans, and the stragglers captured the next day were in a pitiable state of terror.

Joe Terry, a negro, was lynched yesterday at Angleton, Tex. He was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Joe Zeitz, of Post City, and was to have been hanged last week, but was respited for thirty days.

REBELLION IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Conspiracy Against British Government Becomes Serious.

Cape Town, Oct., 15—The government is receiving numerous pledges of support from Boer leaders in the crisis caused by the rebellion of the troops commanded by Colonel Maritz but it is learned that many Boers whose loyalty to England has been suspected in the past have disappeared from their usual haunts both here and in other towns of the Union.

It is believed that these men have gone to join the forces of Colonel Maritz. While the number of troops led by that officer are not definitely known, it is understood that he had at least 3,000 men fully equipped.

He has thrown into prison all the officers who refused to join in the revolt and these are said to have been replaced by German officers from German Southwest Africa.

Despite the attitude of many Boer leaders, who declare that Maritz is a traitor not only to England but also to the Boers the government fears that the rebel officer will gain many recruits outside of the main towns of South Africa.

Thousands of Boer Burghers have never accepted British rule, and it is among these that Maritz is believed to have been working for many months.

NEW QUEEN COUSIN OF CZAR

Wife of King Ferdinand of Roumania Also Queen Victoria's Granddaughter.

The beautiful new Queen in Europe ,Maria wife of King Ferdinand of Roumania, is a granddaughter of Queen Victoria and a first cousin of the Czar of Russia. This fact with the marriage of her son, Crown Prince Charles, to the daughter of the Czar, is expected to carry even more surely the sentiments of the new Roumanian Government toward the allies in the present conflict.

King Ferdinand inherits the Roumanian throne not only as nephew to the late King Charles and his childless Queen (Carmen Sylva), but as the adopted son whom they have long cherished as their own.

His wife, Queen Maria, is considered the most beautiful woman in any of the reigning families of Europe, as well as the most charming to meet, the best-dressed, and the cleverest. In fact, she is worshipped by her people as a veritable paragon of all the qualities of nobility. She is even an excellent business woman and sometime ago started a big toothpick factory, which is said to turn out annually some 25,000,000 toothpicks.

The new Crown Prince is her son Charles, now twenty-one years old, a lieutenant in the Roumanian army. He has one brother, Prince Nicholas, eleven years old and three sisters—the Princess Elizabeth (named after her great aunt, Carmen Sylva), Marie and Ileana, who is only six years old.

It is said that there is not a sweeter royal family in the world than that of these five beautiful children and their well-loved parents.

Gunner Killed by Fall.

Hampton, Va., Oct. 15.—R. E. Wilson, a master gunner at Fort Monroe, connected with the noncommissioned staff, fell from the top of a battery Tuesday and sustained injuries which resulted in his death yesterday afternoon. He was 36 years old, and is survived by his wife and two small children. Wilson had gone to the top of the battery to take angles, when he lost his balance and fell to the ground, a distance of thirty feet.

TERROR TO CAMPAIGN

Rescue Parties in Suwalki District Find Bodies Partly Eaten by Wolves.

Petrograd, Oct., 15—The rapid approach of winter has added a new horror to the fighting in the forests of Russia. The correspondent of the Novoe Vremya, who was with General Rennenkampf's army during the fighting in the Suwalki district, reports that Red Cross rescue parties searching the dense undergrowth of the Augustowo forest for wounded found a number of bodies partly eaten by wolves.

In this region are vast tracts never trodden by man before the battle that resulted in the retreat of the Germans occurred there.

At one point the searchers found a Uhlan who had been treed by a pack of wolves. He had stood them off until his ammunition was exhausted and then had managed to climb the tree though wounded.

He said that a helpless comrade had been devoured by the ravenous beasts.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institute on application), writes regarding a patient. "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

WAR ON THE INDIAN PLANT

The Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago has put the ban on tobacco. Henceforward a man who smokes and is unwilling to give up this indulgence, will not be welcome in any of its hotels.

Butler, in his Hudibras, refers to people who condemn practices they are not inclined to, and excuse such as they have a mind to. This is applicable to certain persons in all ages of the world. In most Christian Association Halls, as well as some under the direct auspices of the church, forms of so called worldly amusement are utilized to draw crowds. That men should be debarred from such places because they enjoy tobacco is hard to understand.

A certain percentage of the human race have no taste for the narcotic, and the fact that they do not use it does not make them better than others.

The aborigines smoked the pipe of peace with the early settlers. They are doing so today in the far west. Some men may regard the practice as questionable, but no right-thinking person does.

SEVERE BLOW TO ENGLAND

Regarded at the time as an unrighteous war, the Boer war that cost the British heavily in men and money and added gravely to their load of experience seemed to have served some good purpose and the confederation of South African states appeared to be in the direction of the good of the country.

The outbreak of a new Boer war, the precipatation of the conflict in South Africa into the general war zone is the severest blow that has happened to England during the present conflict. The uprising finds but a few thousand territorials in the country to hold it in check and England, so sorely tried for troops upon the Continent, and that may soon have the menace of attack at its own doors, will be hardly pushed to place in South Africa the troops needed to quell the uprising—if indeed this can be done at all.

India is reported as being loyal, despite the stories arising from Berlin as to grave unrest in that quarter. It may be that Japan will have to enter very much more largely into the conflict than it has as yet done and furnish the troops both for South Africa and for the suppression of insurrections in India. Undoubtedly Germany has been busy seeking to bring about the South Africa revolt and to secure a revolt in India, and this is legitimate warfare. Taken together with the serious news from the Continent, both as respects the East and the West arenas, the times are fraught with ill omen for the Allies. Germany has made splendid exploits. Unless capitulation shall come unexpectedly a long, grim war is pointed to.

BOY KILLS BEAR WITH CLUB.

What Flobert Bullets Failed to Accomplish, Sturdy Blow Did.

Jomison City, Pa. Oct. 15—While looking for English sparrows in the woods near his home, here, James Edson, 12 year old boy, ran across bear tracks. He followed them for more than a mile, when he came upon a large black bear and two cubs.

The mother bear showed fight, and the boy fired twice from his Flobert rifle without effect. The bear then made a charge on him and the boy ran to and climbed a nearby tree, reaching a limb that was out of danger just as the huge body plunged against the tree.

The bear then stood guard under the boy, and as it walked to and fro young Edson reloaded his gun and waited for a chance to get a shot at a vital spot. After a while the animal tried to climb the tree and was making an effort to reach him.

Taking careful aim, the boy fired at the white of Bruin's right eye. The animal fell, but Edson took no chances and waited a full half-hour, when he descended. The bear at once arose and went after him. The lad seized a club that lay close by and beat it over the brute's head. This time it fell and did not rise. After a long wait the boy cut its throat and started home, when he met his father and neighbors hunting for him. They carried the carcass home. It weighed 200 pounds and was the biggest bear killed in this section in many years.

ENCOURAGEMENT IN NINTH

Irvine's Campaign Manager Talks Regarding the Situation.

Bristol. Va., Oct. 15—Hon. C. S. Carter campaign manager for the Hon. R. Tate Irvine, democratic nominee for Congress in the Ninth Virginia district was here this week for a conference with Mr. Irvine and Richard Evelyn Byrd, who came this way en route to some of the mountain counties. Several prominent local Democratis joined these gentlemen in a conference, looking to the best means of continuing a healthy interest in every part of the district Mr. Carter talked encouragingly concerning the situation. He said in part:

"From every standpoint, the situation is satisfactory to the Democrats. The party has never before had so perfect an organization as now. We are organized for victory, and this we are confident will be our portion. A large majority of the voters who qualified themselves by paying their poll taxes last May are Democrats, and the report coming to our headquarters at Big Stone Gap indicates that we have an unmistakable lead in the new registration throughout the district, which closed on October 3rd. We have reports from more than half the counties in the district. More than this, the Democrats are thoroughly aroused, united and earnest, while the Republicans are divided, lifeless and on the run.

"Mr. Irvine is making one of the strongest campaigns made in the district in many years. During the past week Mr. Byrd has been with him, and they have been drawing large crowds and arousing great interest."

Senator Swanson, Congressman Carter Glass and Hal D. Flood are expected to take the stump for Mr. Irvine as soon as Congress adjourns or takes a recess. From this date forward the Democrats will be active in every county in the district, Mr. Carter asserts, and he is thoroughly confident of a victory for Irvine.

Cases of cholera are multiply rapidly in Galicia, Transylvania and North and East Hungary. The fear is expressed that the disease will prove a serious menace to military operations.

Telephone Courtesy

The people who get the greatest amount of good out of their telephone are those who talk over it as though face to face.

Courtesy smooths out difficulties and promotes the promptest possible connections.

The operators of the BELL System are trained to be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet with patience and politeness on the part of the telephone users.

The fact that you cannot see the operator or the other party should not cause you to overlook this. The best results come through the practice of mutual courtesy.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.

WIDOW AND CHILDREN AT LAW

Appeal and Supersedeas Granted in Case from Culpeper County.

Richmond, Oct. 15—An appeal and supersedeas was allowed by the State Supreme Court yesterday in litigation between a widow and her children over property left by R. R. Duncan, of Culpeper county.

The case, which was decided in favor of Mrs. Duncan, came up from the Circuit Court of Culpeper county which ordered the payment of a debt of $1,800 claimed by Mrs. Duncan, as due her from her husband.

R. R. Duncan died in September, 1912 leaving a widow and seven children. Mrs. Duncan, the administratrix of the estate, brought action in equity, alleging that fifteen years ago she sold her husband a tract of land for $1,800 with the distinct understanding that their relations were to be those of debtor and creditor, the money to be paid her on the death of Mr. Duncan.

In his will Duncan left his widow his real estate and furniture and to his children his personal property. The widow renounced the provisions o fthe wil' in her favor and claimed dower rights and a share in the personal estate. As administratrix she paid the bills of the estate, except that claimed as due her. This debt the children denied, pleading the statute of limitations. Losing, the children carried the case up, and yesterday the Supreme court granted an appeal and supersedeas.

BUTTON DAY NETS $1,600

Despite Inclement Weather, Boxes Are Opened for Contributions at Early Hour.

Richmond, Oct. 15—Collections amounting to $1,600 were reported last night by the workers who braved the inclement weather yesterday to sell tiny buttons for the benefit of the Home for Needy Confederate Women. Several stations are yet to be heard from.

Mrs. Andrew Jackson Montague, president of the board, stated that she and her associates were more than pleased with the results, especially in view of the rainy weather.

The fund raised will go toward the support of the wives and dependants of Confederate soldiers Many of these women for years did their share to keep green the memory of the Confederacy, and now, at this late day, are forced to seek the shelter provided by their more fortunate friends The home is maintained wholly through the voluntary subscriptions secured through the efforts of the women who form the society.

COADJUTOR BISHOP

Richmond, Oct. 15—The Right Rev. Dr. W. C. Brown recently elected Coadjutor Bishop of Virginia arrived in Richmond last night, and is the guest of Bishop Gibson, at 300 Park avenue, after twenty-three years of missionary work in Brazil. In an interview, Dr. Brown told of many interesting incidents of his work as a missionary and of his voyage home when the Vau Ban, the vessel on which he was sailing was stopped by foreign war vessels.

Bishop Brown was born in Nelson county about fifty years ago. He received his min sterial training in the Virginia Theological seminary, at Alexandria, graduating in 1891 In the fall of that year he left the United States in company with Rev. John G. Meeh and Miss Mary Packard, a daughter of Joseph Packard, the dean of the Virginia seminary, for missionary work in Brazil. They were attached to the staff of the mission at Porto Allegra, Rio Grade do Sul, the furthest south of the Brazilian states. This mision was re-established in 1889 by Bishop Kinsolving of Brazil, now in this country, and Rev. James W. Morris, the present rector of Monumental Episcopal church.

Later, about seven years ago, Dr. Brown was stationed at Rio de Janeiro, where another mission was started. He was elected Wednesday afternoon, May 20, 1914, to be Bishop Coadjutor of Virginia to assist Bishop Gibson.

The date for his consecration has not yet been fully settled upon, but will probably take place October 28, in either Trinity, St. James' or St Paul's church. Bishop A. M. Randolph Bishop Beverly R. Tucker, Bishop Gibson and Bishop Kinsolving will probably attend. Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, the oldest bishop in the Episcopal church, will probably preside at the consecration.

Several dispatches from Lisbon received in London yesterday stated that Portugal had declared war against Germany and would recruit an army of 250,000 men at once. Other dispatches deny that Portugal has taken either of thse steps

WARSHIP BUNTING

It Takes a Lot of Flags to Fit Out Uncle Sam's Navy.

USE COLORS OF ALL NATIONS.

Each of the Big Vessels Carries About Five Hundred Ensigns of Various Kinds and Sizes—Severe Tests to Which the Material Is Subjected.

Something like $80,000 a year is required to keep Uncle Sam's many naval vessels properly equipped with flags. In addition most every other department of the government appropriates various sums for flags for buildings and ships under its control. In all, it is safe to say the United States spends $125,000 a year for flags.

The largest factory belongs to the navy. In a large room, called the "flag loft," at Brooklyn navy yard half a hundred skilled needlewomen and quite a few men are kept constantly at work. Officially it is the naval flag making establishment.

Thousands of flags are required to supply the hundreds of vessels, from battleships to launches. On entering the flag loft the visitor's first impression is a blaze of color. Rolls of bright bunting are heaped everywhere. Long lines of electrically driven sewing machines, with women operators, are reeling off and putting the finishing touches to American and foreign ensigns of many different hues and sizes. In addition to our own flag, the navy has to keep a supply of every other nation in the world which has a coast line.

Each battleship, cruiser, gunboat or scout in the navy requires about 500 flags to outfit its flag locker properly. Heaped up, they make a pile shoulder high and twenty or twenty-five feet long. The foreign flags, incased in canvas bags, bear the name of the country stenciled on the end. The remainder, including flags for ordinary use, signaling, etc., are wrapped without bags and numbered at the end. Each flag has its separate place in the flag locker. A quartermaster would be rebuked severely if one became misplaced. Each ship follows the same order in this, so that any one familiar with the flag locker on one ship knows the location of every flag on any ship.

Uncle Sam pays about $3,500 to outfit each ship in the service. This multiplied by the number of ships will show that flags are not an inconsequential item of naval expense. The foreign ensigns are all made twenty-five feet long and thirteen feet wide. They are used whenever an American warship enters a port of another nation. The flag of the visited nation is hoisted at the top of the foremast while the American ship salutes. It is also hoisted when returning salutes of foreign vessels in American ports.

The most showy and expensive flags in the lot are those of foreign nations, although the United States has two flags that are close rivals, the flags of the president and vice president. They require the longest time to make of any flags. It takes one woman a month to finish each one. The president's flag is a blue ground with the coat of arms of the United States in the center. The life sized eagle with outstretched wings and other emblems are all hand embroidered in silk. The silk used costs $9 a pound. The vice president's flag is the coat of arms on a field of white. Both flags are made in two sizes, 10 by 14 feet and 3 by 5 feet. The larger is used on ships and the smaller on launches and similar craft.

The largest flag made is the United States ensign No. 1, which is 36 by 19 feet. It costs $40.

The bunting used in flag making is put to severe tests before the flag makers use it. One day a sample bundle is washed in soap and water. The next day the same process is followed with salt water. It is then exposed to the weather for ten days, thirty hours of which must be in the bright sun. If it doesn't fade in that test the government experts pass it. Then two inches wide of the warp is subject to a pulling strain of sixty-five pounds. Even with all those precautions a ship is allowed a new set of flags every three years, while the signal flags and ship and boat ensigns in frequent use must be replaced every few weeks.

One flag or pennant, rather, most used by the navy and least known to the public is the commission pennant. It is hoisted to the masthead of every naval vessel when it goes into commission and is never removed. It is a long, narrow streamer, blue at the staff, with thirteen stars in the field, arranged in one line, and the flag divided into two stripes, red and white, the red at the top. When ships long on foreign stations leave for home a new commission pennant is always hoisted. Usually it is one made and paid for by the crew. In some cases those "homeward bounders" stretch out 300 feet and, made of silk, cost a pretty penny.

The thousands of white stars used in our own and many other ensigns are made by an electrically driven machine which cuts them in fifty or a hundred lots. Eight different sizes of stars are used.—Kansas City Star.

Superfluity.

"You never admit having made a mistake!"

"What's the use?" asked Senator Sorghum. "When I make a mistake there are always plenty of people to talk about it without my joining in."—Washington Star.

There is no greater grief than in misery to turn our thoughts back to happier times.—Dante.
